Nonprofit Law, Policy and Practice: Evolution and Evaluation

Eighth ISTR Asia Pacific Regional Conference
Seoul 24-26 October 2013

Paper/Panel proposals are sought from researchers throughout the Asia Pacific region reporting research into aspects of the third sector

Deadline 31 March 2013

The third sector in the Asia Pacific region is very large and dynamic – it is claimed that China and India have 1+ million third sector organizations. The major growth in the third sector in Asia had been in the 1970s and 1980s – during the pro-democracy movements. The third sector activities and organizations, in the recent past, have also been influenced by many tax laws e.g. in Australia, Japan, Korea. Sadly democratization and recent extremist activities have prompted new legislations constricting the third sector in many countries. Laws affecting the third sector in the Asia Pacific region having been in existence for about 150 years have grown rapidly in the last two decades. Is this development for better or for worse?

MAJOR THEMES OF THE CONFERENCE THUS INCLUDE:

- ✚ Government, laws, and the third sector
- ✚ Tax regime and the third sector activities
- ✚ Third sector and policy making: Impact and Evaluation
- ✚ Wellbeing/welfare systems and the role of the third sector
- ✚ Non-profit history and 'her-story'

OTHER CONFERENCE THEMES (Indicative, not exhaustive)
